

St. Barts Beckons as Never Before with Fresh Updates to Three Favorite Hotels

By Sam Cochran

The hit-making hospitality group Rosewood just planted a flag on the island with its update to this Technicolor icon, new and improved with a Sense spa, a fresh outdoor dining concept, and revamped accommodations. rosewoodhotels.com

Situated along Grand Cul de Sac's pristine marine reserve, the Christian Liaigre–designed Le Sereno has unveiled its family-friendly Suites Piscine (each with a dedicated pool), which can be combined with a bungalow for larger groups. serenohotels.com

A perennial pick for the ultra private, at just 22 suites, Le Toiny reopened this fall with a surf shack, refreshed interiors by Lady Bee Osborn, and two new four-bedroom villas, including the onetime home of ballet legend Rudolf Nureyev. letoiny.com
